Wont you stay with me, all through the night
I know you got your work, but I can take you there its alright
I been here alone, day after day its a long time since anyone
Ever made me feel this way
And I know it wont be dark here anymore
You let in the light when you open my door
And I know you wont ever go away
I'm asking you tonight just Stay,stay.....

I swear on the moon and the stars in heaven above
Nothing else matters now but Love, Love, Love
I swear on the moon and the stars in heaven above
Nothing else matters now but Love, Love, Love

You're like this open book, but just for me
For you I'm just the same, for you my feelings are for free
How we going now? Babe are we ok?
I know I ask the same old thing about a million times a day
And I know it wont be dark here anymore
You let in the light when you open my door
And I know you wont ever go away
I'm asking you tonight just
Stay,stay.....

I swear on the moon and the stars in heaven above
Nothing else matters now but Love, Love, Love
I swear on the moon and the stars in heaven above
Nothing else matters now but Love, Love, Love

Wasn't ever gonna get to be, wasn't ever gonna see Im never gonna know just what's out there in front of me
Why'd you come here anyway, why'd you promise you where gonna stay
You tell me that you love me, today of all days

I swear on the moon and the stars in heaven above

Nothing else matters now but Love, Love, Love
I swear on the moon and the stars in heaven above
Nothing else matters now but Love, Love, Love
I swear on the moon and the stars in heaven above
Nothing else matters now but Love, Love, Love
I swear on the moon and the stars in heaven above
Nothing else matters now but Love, Love, Love
