look up on a cloudy night and i think that you'll see a star come back tryin to make it work and i won't even know who you were there's no way that we can be one if we're already torn apart i have moooven, moven away from your heart through all this tradgedy up you can't be mad that we done it's like karma's a real bitch Natalie Nunn it's funny cuz now you sayin shit like you miss me some month ago you ain't want shit to do with me but now that i'm more she wanna smash again think she scared that it pull a kardashian o well you wearin diapers, i do big shit now if you pull up i don't need you i'm a big kid now get it?

i'll never bring this shit in public, but like a tranny i don't mean to be a dick but fuck it if lovin you is right than i guess i'm too wrong is in my way i gotta move on if you buggin me than all i'm gonna get is pissed off like i'm recommendin you to buy a shell and get lost better do like daphane did and get a clue your never gonna see me again but i bet if you...

look up one a cloudy night and i'll bet that you'll see a star (see a star)

come back, trying to make it work and won't even know who you were (ohhh) there's no way we can be one
if were already torn apart that's why i'm moooviin, moovin away from your heart aye babe (what) i kinda think that it was wrong that it got so bad that we started beefin on a song got me actin out that anger that i promised i was past and besides i got a new boo and she's an actress so that means she don't need nothin from me she a multi-mullionaire, shoulda seen all this money and a chick who stay real is the chick who can't fail, she is i-n-d oh shit you can't spell... while you was schemin on gettin rich and shit and bought more cuz that louis bag i bought ya can't drive to the store and that gucci bag i bought can't pay next months rent how you doublin your worth if your money just got spent unlike the people that play sports for a livin if you slow me down i ain't fuckin wit it you better do like velma did and never get a clue, you never gonna see me again but i bet if you...

and won't even know who you were (you weere)
that's why i'm mooooviin,

i bet you really feel like shit right now x4
