The cold air in my lungs and I
Cannot bear, I'm giving in tonight
For tomorrow our hope is gone
It is over, our days are done

THEY slash our backs again
WE raise the flag saying
You won't chase me and today this ends
Riot's over now, after all I doubt
We will live our lives again
We will live a life again

Every day is one spent in agony
Nothing left of what I used to be
All the visions have left my mind
Like a tape that just can't rewind
We can't resist anymore
We are the prisoners of war

THEY slash our backs again
WE raise the flag saying
You won't chase me and today this ends
Riot's over now, after all I doubt
We will live our lives again
We will live a life again
