I remember when I first saw your face. O girl, you blew me away, with your pretty hair, your stylish clothes you would wear. Saw you had your eye on me, but I was taken, don't you see. Stupid to call a quits, I thought she was the one. I was in love with ya. I remember when you-a looked at me, i looked away, I had a girlfriend don't you see. Now your gone, you moved on, taken away from me. If I only had a time machine. If i only had a time machine. Day after day you would throw yourself at at me, we would play truth or dare, you were always there to kiss me. Yeah I knew, you had a crush on me, I had a crush on you. But now all i can do is, remember when you-a looked at me, I looked away, I had a girlfriend don't you see. Now you're gone, you moved on, taken away from me. If I only had a time machine. If I only had a time machine. I'd go back and fix all the, mistakes I made. O girl, hear me , sit right here next to me. We'd be together for all, eternity. And I love you, and you love...meeee. I remember when you-a looked at me. I looked away I had a girlfriend don't you see. Now you're gone, you moved on, taken away from me. If I only had a time machine. If I only had a time machine. If i only had a time machine.
