the pen in the pocket
the fall down the stairs
the fork in the socket
these are our daily dares.
these are my concerns
these are my disregards this is what I've learned and I've forgotten so far.
I'm making lead from gold I'm turning friends to err carries into cabals victories to despair.
it hits you like a brick it hits you like a smell it doesn't bat a lash
it brings on fainting spells.
use sentiment like aloe use sentiment like mace use sentimental explanations of how we got to this place.
I got fucked by fate on fate and I's first date and now I know i knew breaking up is hard to do.
