Well it must have been today
I don't know what I'm going to say
Or it must have been the wine
I can't keep up with the times

Invention, deception
I was astonished at your invitation
I'm amazed that you can do such things
I'm afraid when you talk to me

You don't even try to cheat
You're so smart, you can't be beat
All you say is a pack of lies

No reason why
No sad goodbye
No time to cry
You're a spy

What a splendid cake
Your dress is a beauty
It's wonderland
I'm feeling so stupid

And the way we danced together
Told me we were more than friends
And the way we talked to each other
Told me we were less than lovers

You don't even try to cheat
You're so smart, you can't be beat
All you say is a pack of lies

No reason why
No sad goodbye
No time to cry
You're a spy
