V means life for me, I don't need any red pill coz I shine through every pore of my skin, I'm almost burning from inside Can't wait for this power to ignite your heart and blow my mind, I run into circles to find the magic seed Tomorrow will give me the answer, all I wanna do is to be your always, giving you all you ever need Orchestra of the only melody I hear, my body listens to you every single day Rule my kingdom or kill me if you don't forgive me, don't send me away Infinite is my sympathy for you, now you know what sympathy means Happiness doesn't start with letter A so let me start again, let's start again

You are the sun shining even when eclipsed by the moon
You are the heaven's door when people are full of
gloom
You are the shelter when we lose our own room
You are the future when all disappear in a thunder
boom
You, oooh, oooh, ooh, you, you, you, oooh, oooh oooh, youuuuuuuu

Venom of truth is now in my blood, all sounds like so different
Into the sky, I stare at the stars and wonder if you think of me
Clear this moments, you can take them all and erase every day without you Time is running out, so I won't wait for my last time and I'll try and I'll try Opening your eyes, underneath my skin, you'll come across a beautiful place Roses on the ground won't hurt you, just stand onto my heart
Impulse is not a choice, love either, love either, but love is all you need Harmony does not start with letter A, so let me believe again, let's believe again

You are the sun shining even when eclipsed by the
You are the heaven's door when people are full of
You are the shelter when we lose our own room
You are the future when all disappear in a thunder
boom
You, ooh, ooh, ooh, you, you, you, ooh, ooh ooh, youuuuuuu

Visions of you, brightest light in the shadows land Inspire me, my dreams and my life, I want to be true Create a world for you, full of joy and miracles Turn the pages of this story, you'll see that all comes back to you Oh oh oh, you are the reason to breathe, my reason to sing is you Reign over me, rain on me, my love, don't let me dry out
I promise you to be the one, the one to cast the right spell for Attraction, this is my quest, eternal attraction between you and me

You are the sun shining even when eclipsed by the
You are the heaven's door when people are full of
You are the shelter when we lose our own room
You are the future when all disappear in a thunder
boom
You, ooh, ooh, ooh, you, you, you, ooh, ooh ooh,
youuuuuuu
