I keep running back with it cause I can
I keep running back with it, mean, goodbye
I keep running back with it cause I can
I keep running back with it, mean, goodbye
I keep running back with it cause I can
I keep running back with it, mean, goodbye

Keep the camera rolling, this is a magic moment
My hustle so pretty, make it look easy, don't it
I am the highest, morale is real high
Those are my sweat and tears, this is the real god
Change how we run, change how we talk
Set the top on top, I'm gonna need props
No plays-off, that is no sweat
I must be accountant for, that means is,
My flow hood, , dancing at the,
Start the news off, , quick as a hick up
Plus I stay in shape, my , are so good
And my, I'm on a special team, and ...
40 and 20's nothing, that means,
I'm hold it down, , throw it when you open
Take it to the top

I keep running back with it cause I can
I keep running back with it, mean, goodbye
I keep running back with it cause I can
I keep running back with it, mean, goodbye
I keep running back with it cause I can
I keep running back with it, mean, goodbye

I'm like the runner running back
I can run and run and running back, yeah
,looks like it, seems like it
Problem's always running, running, running
I'm like a runner running back

From anywhere on the field with the peel I'm a threat
For nothing out the blocks and the 40 I'm a jet
I'm Chris Johnson, number one, I'm the best
Out of the ordinary, in the league, I was blessed
They say I read blocks like I got 2 legs

Last year wasn't nothing, watch what I do next
Ice water pumping through my veins, I never threat
, never guess,
, so never there, you never care
Never less, franchise counting on me, I can never rest
, can intimidate me
, I'm Chris Johnson, and I'ma stay nasty

I keep running back with it cause I can
I keep running back with it, mean, goodbye
I keep running back with it cause I can
I keep running back with it, mean, goodbye
I keep running back with it cause I can
I keep running back with it, mean, goodbye.
