There ain't nobody here tonight
I look around for a cigarette
I almost stay, have a glass of wine
To take up to my empty bed

There awhile I wait the hours
But it's just no fun
For a night the price for two
For one goes undone

Come on back to your good girl
Come on back to your baby (come on back)
Come on back to your good girl
Come on back to your baby
(Come on back, come on back)

There isn't anybody else
That I could feel so easy with
I need my love up on the shelf
A souvenire for me to give

There's a little melody
We used to call our song
But the words just right for two
A rhyme for only one

Come on back to your good girl
Come on back to your baby (come on back)
Come on back to your good girl
Come on back to your lady
(Come on back, come on back)

[SAXOPHONE SOLO]

And I think it's topsy turvy
When you're not around
Any clear that when you're here
The world's so safe and sound

Come on back to your good girl
Come on back to your baby (come on back)
Come on back to your good girl

Come on back to your lady

Come on back to your good girl
Come on back to your baby
Come on back to your good girl
Come on back to your baby

Come on back, come on back
Come on back, come on
Come on, come on, come on, come on (Come on back)

Come on back to your good girl
Come on back to your baby
