the moon was in Neptune the key was indeed by the shimmering sea I took a trip upon a empty bottle of rum that some say less I'm drunk and gone I'm drunk and gone, drunk and gone my genie out jumpin' I just couldn't see he was smiling down on me all across the Atlantic, my lover dips and sighs the magic tricks he try to bring him to me bring him to me, bring him to me

I see his ship is signaling to me your love I'll never tire seagulls, take me higher whales, have a school holiday all, all you oysters put your pearls on display I love you fathoms deep all, all you starfish couldn't catch me, couldn't catch me couldn't catch me-e-e

[musical]

my genie has vanished right back into smoke, it was all upon a joke my imagination seems to run away with me when I'm thinkin' of the day he'll come home to me come home to me

when he'll come home to me, yeah when he'll come home to me
come home to me
when he'll come home to me, oh give the sea horses and blue dolphins to ride the waves along genie coming from the smoke they won't keep him long won't you come home to me, yeah won't you come home to me come home to me
