Love, where are you now that I need you
Love, where are you now
Love, where are you now that I need you
Love, where are you now

Making myself at home
I think I'll put my feet up
No one but me to please
So I just please myself
Think I just fetch my glass
And sit right down and drink to my head
Here's to me and..

Love, where are you now that I need you
Love, where are you now
Love, where are you now that I need you
Love, where are you now

Remember those good old days
I think that lasts forever
Nothing would ever change
The love that we once knew
Wish I could bring them back
Wish I could start all over with you
We'll have so much love

Love, where are you now that I need you
Love, where are you now
Love, where are you now that I need you
Love, where are you now

[Saxophone solo]

Someone I used to know
Just when the day he left me
Someone I used to know
Said fools in love are blind
Left me here with this song
And it keeps going round in my mind
I'm still saying
Keep on saying

Lo-o-ove (where are you now that I need you)
Lo-o-o-ove, where are you now
(Love, where are you now that I need you)
Lo-o-o-ove
(Love, where are you now) Lo-o-o-ove
(Love, where are you now that I need you)
Lo-o-o-o-ove
(Love, where are you now)
