I an more than a fool, I know for loving and for telling a soul
'cause when you go away, you know I want you to stay but I won't be the one to say yes, you have hurt me first, you flirt with women now you're gone and now desert me and all my friends have felt that I was soon forget but I won't be the one to fret yes, stay, stay, stay, stay oh, won't you just wait until the morning comes now just until I'm yawning, oh don't run, don't run, don't run

a little bit longer, longer just until I get stronger, stronger love, it wasn't anything that you said it was just a little movement of your head well, well and since if love was fake, we must've made some mistakes is there any way that I can make you stay?

hey, stay, stay
just until I get stronger stronger, stronger
I'm already yawning
ohhhh, ohh
