I've been trying
To make you love me
But everything I tried
Just takes you farther from me

You don't love me
So you treat me cruel
But no matter how you hurt me
I'll always be your fool

And if you don't want me forever
And if you don't need me forever
And if you don't love me forever
Take me for a little while
So I can make you want me
So I can make you need me
And love me, darling
So I can make you want me

I just got to stop it
There must be a law
'Cause every time you put me down
I love you more

And I feel so helpless
And it ain't funny
'Cause deep down inside I know
You never gonna love me

So if you don't want me (forever)
And if you don't need me forever
Love me (forever)
Take me for a little while
So I can make you want me
And make you love me
So I can love you, baby
So I can make you, baby

Want me forever
And if you don't need me forever
And if you don't love me forever
Take me for a little while

So I can make you want me
And love me, darling
And need me, baby
So I can make you want me

(Take me for a little while, won't cha) ooh oo-oo
(Take me for a little while, why don't cha)
(Take me for a little while, won't cha) aahh yeah
(Take me for a little while, why don't cha)
(Take me for a little while)

Come on, come on, come on baby
Come on, come on, come on honey
Come on, come on, come on baby
Come on, come on, come on baby
I need you to hold me
I need you to squeeze me
I need you to kiss me, baby
I need you to lo-o-o-ove me
(Take me for a little while, won't cha)
(Take me for a little while)
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, oo-oo
