Her face is in a picture that's circled by a coffee stain
it frames her name
Sit here now without her In silence
her touch I crave
and all I can remember the sadness in her eyes
as our love died
and all the times I said I knew her...

How could I?

She comes like a child
She seems so wild
And she's smiling, smiling
Like there's summer in her eyes
Always disguised
Her masked inside
but she's smiling
She's smiling

The sheets fragrance
The scent of you and I
Dreams that dried
I sleep in the shadow of your photo Seems so life sized

She comes like a child
She seems so wild
And she's smiling, smiling
Like there's summer in her eyes
Always disguised
Her masked inside
but she's smiling
She's smiling

I would like to hold you
But I'm ashamed, so ashamed
And my lips still tremble when I see you Or hear your name

She comes like a child
She seems so wild
And she's smiling, smiling
Like there's summer in her eyes
Always disguised
Her masked inside
but she's smiling
She's smiling

She's so life sized
She's so life sized

Tears fall like rain
will it ever change
Come feel this shame
Tears fall like rain
Come feel this shame
Come feel this shame

She is so life sized.
