"I Do"

Here I lie alone
Soon I will become one with everything in the universe
Why this always was
Was and always is
Why this bitter kiss never moves me to goodbye

It holds me like a curse
It makes me wonder why I do
and then there's you
You make it even worse
You make me want to cry and I do

Holding on alone
It's colder every day in every way in my universe
Looking out at love
Oblivion looking in It's how it's always been so I don't ever try
It holds me like a curse
It makes me wonder why I do
and then there's you
You make it even worse
You make me want to cry and I do

I assanu maludry
Will a kiss to make you fly
Searching for the reason why
In all the times you said goodbye
I had a dream that made me cry
Searching for the reason why
