The truth is I never meant to leave but I felt that I had to.

Cause the blowing of the leaves from your house that I heard from your bedroom, in the middle of the night said "I might not love you".

So I left you in the house and I kept on going.

Seal me in a town to wander around streets we drive on the greyhound.

Every town's the same, every town's the same.

Bad dream, nice day
Wish you could see things my way.
Nice dream, I won't stay
Cause I'm going all the way to Africa.

So what, so I'm leaving on a plane and I left on a Tuesday.
And I'm sitting by a man looking down through the clouds at the ocean.
He was telling me about how his wife had left him.
He was on his way to Spain but I kept on going.

Seal me in a town to wander around. The skies we fly will touch the ground...till the next plane.
Cause every town's the same.
Bad dream, nice day
Wish you could see things my way
Nice dream, I won't stay
Cause I'm going all the way to Africa.

Seal me in a town to wander around the streets we drive on the greyhound.
Every town's the same, every town's the same
Seal me in a town to wander around. The skies we fly will touch the ground...till the next plane.
Cause every town's the same.

Bad dream, nice day
Wish you could see things my way
Nice dream, I won't stay
Cause I'm going all the way to Africa.
