Why are you here,
With that stupid smile
Clenching your teeth?
Are you daydreaming?

Why aren't mirrors like they are in tales?
Can't tell the truth onto your pretty face
That not everything that contradicts you
Has to be unfair

Mirrors and friends
Commit the same mistakes
Throw more firewood
Onto your ego's flame...

Oh... If I were your mirror
I would be broken

Oh... If I were a mirror
I would fear you

I wouldn't tell
You all those half truths

Oh, I've got to tell you...
You might be wrong

Mirror, mirror condescending...
Mirror, mirror on the wall...

Mirror, mirror...
Mirror, Mirror, Mirror...

Why are mirrors condescending?
Why can't they tell you the naked truth?
Or how I feel?

Don't you dare to think I don't know
You are hurt, cause I do!
But I'm hurt too,
Deeply indeed,
And I've cried as much as you!

As much as you!

And I do believe that a story
Has two sides, or three, or more...
Don't you know there are
Millions of perceptions...
Thousands of perspectives...
Millions of directions...

Mirror, mirror...
Mirror, mirror, mirror...
