

Lisa Crawley "Blind Eyes"

Visit "Blind Eyes" on MotoLyrics.com

The sun is shining so bright that I can't see
You have decided that you're giving up on me
what a shame
what a shame
Cos' I never knew the rules to your game
No I never knew the rules to your game

The clocks been ticking, ticking all year long
It has decided that it will not go on What a shame, what a shame
But everyones susceptible to change
Oh everybody needs a little change

But I always pictured you by my side
I thought you were keeping me alive
I guess all things change and nothing stays the same
So I will say goodbye

It was so stupid of me, to call you mine, to call you
mine
Everything that I have seen, I have seen with blind eyes
It was so stupid of me, to call you mine, to call you
mine
Everything that I have seen, I have seen with blind eyes

But I always pictured you by my side
I thought you were keeping me alive
I guess all things change and nothing stays the same
So I will say goodbye

The sun is shining so bright that I can't see
You have decided that you're giving up on me
what a shame
what a shame
Cos' I never knew the rules to your game
No I never knew the rules to your game

Visit Lisa Crawley page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.