Storm clouds all around me there's a lightning at my back but there's an angel on my shoulder that's keepin' my on track no matter how bad I stumble she's there to catch me when I fall my angel of forgiveness has been around to see it all I wandered down from nowhere it was a long time ago with my images and dreams my hopes for the best giving nothing away nothing yet lost but now I'm going going over eden's wall
won't be back
you can have it all
take my chances make the run -- finish standing tall
cause I'm going, going, going over eden's wall the heat pu an edge on things that Summer the clock ticking away had all the world before me except for the ungodly war caught in a river, the current took me away to a wilderness of reverance
a splintered prayer an invocation born out of chance at dusk the benediction at sunrise it's a resonance ringing robbed me of my innocence I'd run out of trust cause now I'm going

cause I'm going, going,
I'm held to the faith feeling wounded
that the future unfolds I could not cry like a conversation not always understood a broken spirit dries the bones It's architecture and intent revealed a little at a time I am delivered gone without a trace I'm running out of time I've seen beyond the line the question I weigh It's not so much the cost It's what I'm willing to pay going, going over eden's wall won't be back, no
goin' over goin' under run right through it look out -- yeah yeah
