Bill Payne, Craig Fuller, Fichie Hayward, Paul Barrere
Wanna go back home, but I'm afraid to fly Wanna fall in love, but the price is way too high And I'd like to go to heaven, but I don't wanna die
And I'd like to hang around, but I'm not about to lie

Oh you really laid me low last night
A beautiful deception You're messin' with my line of sight changing my perception
Of the push and shove that come with love
And the pain you put me through You see I'd never been loved and then lied to

And I don't need no final glance
Don't need a romance left to circumstance It's much too high a price to pay
Don't need to know the reason why you walked away

Loved and lied to, brought down broken hearted
Hung out to dry alone and left to take a chance To try and find someway to take me back to where we started Brought down, laid low, turned around and loved and lied to

And I wanna fall in love again with sweet infatuation Wanna rise above the cares and heartaches of my station
And I'm dreamin' of a life that I could live with resignation Where I wouldn't be loved and denied to

Don't give me that solemn gaze
Don't start in talkin' 'bout better days Don't start turnin' things around Don't try to make me think you didn't mean to let me down

Loved and lied to, brought down broken hearted
Hung out to dry alone and left to take a chance

To try and find some way to take me back to where we
started
Brought down, laid low, turned around and loved and lied to
