

Little Dragon "Place to Belong"

Visit "Place to Belong" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm running late again the booth is dim
And it is cold and me, I'll miss this place
I'm in a sentimental state
While running late trams forget to stop

And everything's in boxes
Pack up stamp to go but who knows
So I'm running away running too late
Running to stay

Maybe I'll stumble upon a magic wand
A treasure a rocket a place to belong
A place to belong

Soon the street lights
An orange glow the cab speeding
As I go so long a quick goodbye
Before I change my mind

So long a quick goodbye
Before I change my mind
So long goodbye, oh oh
