

Little Dragon "Seconds"

Visit "Seconds" on MotoLyrics.com

Ten times more than the sweetest sound
Wouldn't want to change if it brings me down
Every seven years it's on expire
Driven by a fear and a sweep of fire
Higher than the heavens
So tempted by your hands
And letting go
Every now and then to fall behind
Leaning on a stranger, turning time
Cause all I want, a second or two
And all we got are seconds to lose
And all I am is tempted by you
Ten times more than the sweetest sound
I wouldn't change if it brings you down
Every seven years it's on expire
Driven by a fear and a sweep of fire
Cause all I want, a second or two
And all we got are seconds to lose
And all I am is tempted by you
Because all I want, a second or two
And all we got are seconds to lose
And all I am is tempted by you
