Bill Payne, Fran Payne
Maybe there's another place
Some other time or space
I never have to leave something to believe
Maybe love will find a way
And this time come to stay
Another way to be if love could just find me

But I wake up dreamin' again
And, oh, the things I see
I wake up dreamin' again
I only wish I knew how o make this dream come true

Every new day brings sunshine and everything
I've seen it somewhere before
One more reason why

I don't let it pass me by
Another way to feel
With a love that can be real

But I wake up dreamin' again
And, oh, the things I see
I wake up dreamin' again
I only wish I knew how o make this dream come true

Close my eyes and your love, like a warm rain,
Washes over me

Maybe there's another place
Some other time or space
I never have to leave something to believe
Maybe love will find a way
And this time come to stay
Another way to be if love could just find me

But I wake up dreamin' again
And, oh, the things I see
I wake up dreamin' again
I only wish I knew how o make this dream come true
