It's the day for change.
I'll begin again.
Time to take the poison,
But that's alright cause I'm done with the blame.
This again. I'm ready.
Same routine, but only bigger still!
A monster, but that's so fine, cause I'm set like a bomb.
I'm back here again about to descend.
Back in the chicane.
I'm shedding the doubt,
I'm willing it down,
I'm playing the game!.. In the doll house.
Burning ground. Pedal down.
Now I'm loaded and I'm ready to go.
Time to move " face the poison.
It's the one with the cracked up smile.
I took it upon me. Now I'm set like a bomb.
