Who do you think you are?

you're talking so loud you bury the sound of your heart that's singing out and where do you want to be on the top of your world well you're just a girl who forgot what it's like to dream you leave everything behind but you're so tired one day you might open up your eyes to find what you've got isn't what you wanted what you need just happens to be what you got what you always wanted

someone you should know you tried to hide between the lines of a story never told i've seen you run away you're afraid of the fall, the weight of it all, it's too much and you might change your mind if you'd stand up one day you might open up your eyes to find

ladadadaladadadaladadadaladadadaladadaaaaaaaaaaaaaa how do you keep it up?

it's all just a front

a dangerous stunt you're gonna come down soon enough open up your eyes and don't be scared and you might find

you had it all the time what you've got is what you wanted

what you tried so hard to hide, it was there between the lines of a story never told about someone you should know
