Waiting for Wednesday, my stomach doesn't hurt
enough

pain always is the sign.

Waiting for Wednesday, no proof of mine exists,

so I don't have to take it back.

Don't want to show you good-bye,

show you good-bye.

show you good-bye.

show you good-bye.

But you're waiting for Wednesday.

Waiting for Wednesday.

Waiting for Wednesday, I pray you'll put me on the spot.

I do believe you, that you'll love me that you'll leave me.

Don't want to show you good-bye,

show you good-bye.

What will I do when you come near to me?

you'll put me on the spot.

You've been doing this a long, long time,

not that you're better than me,

but that you do it a lot.

Now I'm waiting for Wednesday,
waiting for Wednesday,
waiting for Wednesday,
I'm waiting for Wednesday.

I'm gonna show you good-bye,
show you good-bye,
show you good-bye,
show you good-bye.

Now I'm waiting for Wednesday,
you're back from out of town,
the West is dry, your mind is clear,
and I don't want to be here,
I don't want to be here,
I don't want to be here,
to show you good-bye.

And I'm waiting for Wednesday,
waiting for Wednesday,
I'm waiting for Wednesday, to show you good-bye.

I don't want to be here, to show you good-bye.

Waiting for Wednesday.

I don't want to be here.

Waiting for Wednesday, to show you good-bye,
to show you good-bye
