I'm taking you for granted but I love you so
I'm taking you for granted but I love you so
I'm taking you for granted but I love you so
I'm taking you for granted but I love you so

So I know that you know
I can tell it, yeah I know
See the signs, see the signs
Yeah you show me all the time
Since I went, I've been gone
I've running my own show
I'm taking you for granted but I love you so

Sent you roses, that's our joke
Four words we never spoke
I said I need you so
But just to have my ego grow
Let it grow, let it grow
Until it self-enclose
Let me go, let me go
It is simple way for both

As you see it's rolling fine
I should be the one that's grind
Through all of this commotion you have been there all the time

If I could, yeah I would Yeah I would, yeah I would
Be so good, be so good
Be so good, so good, so good
