I'm right behind your shoulder
Wishing I was bolder
I wanna miss my heart you see
To someone standing next to me

I've been watching for a while
They way you move I like your style
But soon it may be over
If you don't move on closer

Said you should wake up
You should wake up
You should wake up
Said you should wake up
You should wake up
You should wake up
Said you should wake up
You should wake up
You should wake up
Said you should wake up
You should wake up
So here we go

The scent of desperation
But just for this occassion
It's okay if it helps you see
All the things you do to me

And I know that the time is right
And soon it shines out of sight
But now it isn't over
Until you look behind your shoulder

Said you should wake up
You should wake up
You should wake up
Said you should wake up
You should wake up
You should wake up
Said you should wake up
You should wake up

You should wake up
Said you should wake up
You should wake up
So here we go

Said you should wake up
You should wake up
You should wake up
Said you should wake up
You should wake up
You should wake up
Said you should wake up
You should wake up
You should wake up
Said you should wake up
You should wake up
So here we go

Said you should wake up
You should wake up
You should wake up
Said you should wake up
You should wake up
You should wake up
Said you should wake up
You should wake up
You should wake up
Said you should wake up
You should wake up
So here we go
