Mmm yeah yeah
Ohh
Yeah
Do you like me cause I liked you
And we might be more than like ooh
If you like me cause I liked you
Yeah I like you
Yeah I like you

My heart is strong but we protect it
And I'm at my pressure point about to break
Emotions from within are gripping through my skin
I can't take it anymore I have to face
The pain

And I hate that there's so much I can't tell you
Tell you
I could walk away but can't escape the truth
I've been here for way too long
And I just can't carry on
I could give my all but still feel like I lose
I can't keep up this deception
Deception deception
I'm afraid to ask the question
The question the question
Would you be mine
Cause I need to be alive
Inside
I can't keep up this deception

Seems everytime I go to get you more
You just take my words and make the feeling null
I keep trying to keep it up
But I feel I've hit a wall
I wish I wasn't so unsure
Unsure

And I hate that there's so much I can't tell you
Tell you
I could walk away but can't escape the truth
I've been here for way too long

And I just can't carry on
I could give my all but still feel like I lose
I can't keep up this deception
Deception deception
I'm afraid to ask the question
The question the question...
