You used to be my girl, used to my baby
Used to be so young and so sweet, yeah
But that was all before I got the money and rolls
Now I can't recognize her no more I never would have known that my good girl would get so bad
She went from small time slow now she way too fast
Got blinded by the light
Now she out there looking for the next free ride
[chorus]
So when you see her just run, just run, just run
When you see her just run, just run, just run
She just a troublemaker, she out there chasing your paper
So when you see her just run, just run, just run
When you see her just run, just run, just run
She just a troublemaker, she out there chasing your
paper
So I was walking down the street, saw you hug the quitter
Saw that sad look on your face, yeah
You were carrying a shopping bag, spending all the dough you had
All while she was winking at me
Who would have known that my good girl would get so bad
Moving from one guy to the next, man it's so sad
She blinded by the light
Now she out there looking for the next free ride
[Chorus]
She just a troublemaker, she out there chasing your
paper
So when you see her better run
Between me and you, I'm trying to let you know What she about to do
I'm trying to let you know,
Cause she be looking fine, â€¦
But you never know what's under Underneath that sweet smile,
Right behind them bright eyes You've been falling for it, but you never knew the whole time that

Oh-o, your moneyâ€™s all gone
Sheâ€™s already started on the next one
[Chorus]
She just a troublemaker, she out there chasing your paper.
