Feel your time and,
feel your time and give out
hear the voices,
hear the voices aloud

Feel like you could
fall from the sky
escape these walls
that hold you in tonight

Watch the sunrise,
watch the sunrise give out holding on just holding on but not for long, for long

Feel like you could,

Hear the sound of the beating down of the doors that held you in (x2) so break them now with the thunderous sound of the voice you call your own sing it all alone

Just wait

Feel like you could fall from the sky
that hold you in tonight
