hey oooh oooh
yeah yeah
i make some paper but it ain't nothing changed now i'm the same chris we can still chill now still young but i feel a little grown now still at home but i can help with the bills now its been a while i just wanna get closer i got my own room you can stay over i got my license we can dip in my rover and we can ride forever cos all i need is you

i just wanna spend everyday with you
anything i have i'd change for you sometimes i feel like i can runaway with you
if it's with you
lets take some time
let me change your life
girl you're so beautiful
there's nothing i won't do
to feel how it feels to be with you
all i need is you

and (?) told me i should stay focused i'm on the phone with you right before my show hits i hide the stress so nobody never notice but sometimes i gotta get away from show biz so i appreciate everything you doing you always seem to help me get through it so i couldn't imagine my life without having a friend in my corner to hold it down..

like you

(you, you, you, you, you)
all i need is you
(said you, you, you, you)

sometimes i wish i could spend my life with you and i just sit up every night is this what love feels like
called i save every message you leave just to hear your voice i wanna hear you say lets get away, lets get away so many girls in the world but all i wanna do is travel around the world and just be..

with you
(you, you, you, you)
