You talk long and you talk loud
You talk big, you talk proud
You talk a lot but that is all
No action taken, I recall?
You speak of love but not in love
If not in love, youÃ¢â¬âre out of love
Fuck consolation, fuck unfair
Fuck I love you, fuck I don't care

I can't take it, I don't know just who you are
I won't fake it, I don't know just who you are

It feels right, it feels wrong
Feels okay but spark is gone
I think I may, I think I might
I'm sick of this donÃ¢â¬ât wanna fight
Second best my consolation
Case of beer and NickÃ¢â¬âs Playstation
You went away and let me down
You left me here in a ghost town

I can't take it, I don't know just who you are
I won't fake it, I don't know just who you are

Looking back on the time that we shared
I think about how you ??

I can't take it, I don't know just who you are
I won't fake it. I'm not giving up
Cause I've come so far
Watch out!
