I just like you My words are flying and I'm trying, to get you You look like me and I still like you but its odd, I tell you

Let me take you, some place outside here
You will like it, I feel it Come sing with me into your latte
no one does it, don't be late

Here comes a train,
We cannot buy it but we trying, not easy
I like your boots, I like your style Its like my straint, I mean it Your pants eat wool, my fish half dying,
We are just happy to eat it

I really really need you to stay where you are
I wanna be in your picture so please just stun me
I really really need you to stay by my side, and I try
To give you something to smile

You lock my head into your planet There's nobody but you in and I feel great, it feels like silence everybody is sleeping Our friends are looking through the window
"It's a nice day," she says
So don't be blue and change that channel
It's a lie, you do it

I really really need you to stay where you are
I wanna be in your picture so please just stun me
I really really need you to stay by my side, and I try
To give you something to smile

I really really need you to stay where you are
I wanna be in your picture so please just stun me

I really really need you to stay by my side, and I try
To give you something to smile

yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah na na na, na na na
hey hey you do it na na na na na

He wants you dead just dying
na na na, na na na
He wants you dead just dying
na na na, na na
