Man walking forward forever
Breaking the bough
Finally feels the crush of gravity

Imperious design
Resignation in the formative appetites
For all seasons upturned
Blindness in the tunnel of revelation
The light casts a long shadow
From which comes a human howl

Eloquent ass's invective
Hushed from the trees
A warning call
Let it bare its teeth

Imperious design
Resignation in the formative appetites
For all seasons upturned
Blindness in the tunnel of revelation
The light casts a long shadow
From which comes a human

Imperious design
Resignation in the formative appetites
For all seasons upturned
Blindness in the tunnel of revelation
The light casts a long shadow
From which comes a human howl
