One turn of this key is all it takes
I'm gonna make this Chevy's windows shake
Bury that needle and forget about the brake
It's 700 miles 'tween me and her sweet smile

It's black top time to burn up that white line
Throw it in gear outta here
I'm gone been too long since I held her tight
If these good year tires ain't bald
Well they're gonna be by tonight it's black top time

Get out my way movin' from the passing lane
Cause a man in love is a man insane
Time is tick, tick, tick, tick, tickin away
It's a race against the clock, I ain't gonna stop

It's black top time to burn up that white line
Throw it in gear outta here
I'm gone been too long since I held her tight
If these good year tires ain't bald
Well they're gonna be by tonight it's black top time

One voice I can't wait to hear
Two arms I can't wait to hold
There's three words that I wanna say
Four more hours to go

It's black top time to burn up that white line
Throw it in gear outta here
I'm gone been too long since I held her tight
If these good year tires ain't bald
Well they're gonna be by tonight it's black top time
