I wonder how long it takes to leave here
You could be gone by the morning if you knew the way
I see you look out across the mountains
And in your eyes I know you've gone away

I know I got it coming
I know I got it coming
I know I got it coming
I know
It's a blow I know I'm due

Pull me off to the shoulder of the road
I don't think I'm fit to drive anywhere, anytime (in this state of mind)
Got my genie and wasted all my wishes
Got my genie and wasted all my wishes

I promise you this year
I promise you this year
I promise you this year
I'll be the man

I promise you this year
I promise you this year
I promise you this year
I'll be the man

I promise you this year
I promise you this year
I promise you this year
I'll be the man
You fell in love with
You fell in love with

Got my genie and wasted all my wishes on things I didn't need
