"Just an ordinary day, all around it seems O.K.

With a normal view

Then you open up your eyes, suddenly you realize

Everyone's confused

Caught in the middle, of life and fantasy

Caught in the middle, is where you seem to be

Everyone around is sad, but, they analyze you mad

Sayin' you've lost your mind

Seems their lives have been abused

With a risk of being used, no happiness to find

Caught in the middle, of life and fantasy

Caught in the middle, is where you seem to be

Seems the whole society in the world's insanity

Sayin' you've lost your mind

Seems their lives have been abused

With a risk of being used, no happiness to find

Caught in the middle, of life and fantasy

Caught in the middle, is where you seem to be
