What an enemy

You became to me

Lived a fantasy

An illusion

Built scenery

Played to the gallery

like so many we

Never could agree

All the pain that I

Had to hide inside

Made me realize

I was starved Tried so hard to be

Anyone but me

Everyone could see

So, I've opened my eyes

I'm no longer waiting for a miracle

Hold my head up high, the future's now

Though I was colorblind

I read the warning signs

And put the past behind

Down the gutter

Now I finally see
That the enemy
is both in you and me
Yeah, I've opened my eyes
I'm no longer waiting for a miracle
Both feet on the ground, my future's now
No use in waiting for a miracle
Hold my head up high, my future's now
