Lost in a dream in the arms of the night
Two lonely prisoners of our own device Don't let me go, Hold on Together you wanna know if love can be real I wanna take everything I can steal love on the line, it's now or never Why can't the night last forever
This could be Paradise
Holding you here by my side
if we just close our eyes
we'll be in Heaven Tonight Run through the night down streets of desire Burning my soul, my heart's on fire Give up the fight, it's sweet surrender with trembling hands we reach for it all two desperate Hearts waiting to fall I need you now, now more than ever
Why can't the night last forever
This could be Paradise
Holding you here by my side
if we just close our eyes
we'll be in Heaven Tonight
