Legion Of The Damned

Legion Of The Damned

Deprived of our lives, pushed into war

Our fearless leader lies,

he's rotten to the core

As per instruction

march through no man's land

Machines of destruction,

combat hand to hand

Marching over frozen water,

soon reaching the front

Into the merciless slaughter

on the human hunt

Battling the enemy that we don't know

We're strangers in a strange land

Losing it all we are sinking so low

We're the Legion of the Damned

Legion Of The Damned

Legion Of The Damned

Legion Of The Damned

Soldier without faith, fight fire with fire

Don't know why we hate, so we'll die trying

This is madness without end, are we men or fools

There's no honour to defend,

we obey insane rules

Mortars blowing us to pieces, hell is breaking loose

Minds all sick full of diseased, no one sees the truth

Marching over frozen water,

soon reaching the front

Into the merciless slaughter

on the human hunt

Losing it all we are sinking so low

We're the Legion of the Damned

Legion Of The Damned

Legion Of The Damned

Legion Of The Damned

Legion Of The Damned

Legion Of The Damned

Legion Of The Damned

Legion Of The Damned

When it's said and done, there'll be no victory

They're blocking out the sun, all that's left is misery
Marching over frozen water,
soon reaching the front
Into the merciless slaughter
on the human hunt
We're strangers in a strange land
Losing it all we are sinking so low
We're the Legion of the Damned
Battling the enemy that we don't know
We're strangers in a strange land
Losing it all we are sinking so low
We're the Legion of the Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Legion Of The Damned
Legion Of The Damned
