"On The Run Again"

"Outcast, not knowing right from wrong
Surrounded by women, wine, and song
Never still always on the run
Prince of the night, killing with a gun
Now, he's taken a life away
Nowhere to run, nowhere to stay
Renegade, he fled from town to town
Vigilantes joint to hunt him down
For his head, lies a might price
He's a wanted man, dead or alive
Where will he go from here
He's on the run again...nowhere...no, no...
He's got mixed emotions running through his head
With a crazy notion, he's gonna end up dead
He's on the run, again...(repeat 4 times)
Tell me when will it end
