i must say im so disappointed in my hood im sick of tired of the things in it not being good baby momma drama daddy got shot now gone for good gang related violence left family with nowhere to look headlinin
red flagging too many bodies being bagged and have mercy
Lord have mercie bodies now adays cut up like beef jerky it saddens
yes im saddened we dyin everyday but we sittin playin Madden tryna play moves n pray that its the right one and if it is the right one, still try to dogde the gun chorus:

We're on the verge of extinction soon we'll be long gone and dead if we continue to go down the path that we're on there will be none of us left fightin over streets that we don't own, don't u kno thats bull and if u wear a color i don't like, then we fight, who made that rule?
and then when you get locked up u look like a damn fool
and then u got ur family disappointed cuz they know better they taught u stupidity promiscuity?
since when was it ever cool to pass along a std?
you foolin
so u dropped out of school then? u need that education i suggest u roll bak in get ur mind right please get ur mind right we don't need another body layin on the pave tonight please get it together and do something good with your life or else you'll never get those wings for the flight

chorus

Bridge:

i want you to pull through and stay here
not disappear
