Visit "Wintertime" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm a lonely soul walking the world alone
Everyday I find a new place to call my home
Every week I find a new heart thats accident prone Every minute I await a hero to call on my phone

Chorus:

I'm always praying things will get better
But its the coldest winter ever
I would love to get it together
But I'm too busy feelin sorry for me

Don't have the guts to say I love you Not really sure if I know what that is But don't have to time to get involved theres internal battle im fightin... and losin

Gotta get my strength up

Got a long journey ahead
But I can't sit and rest
I'll rest when I'm dead
These weights on my shoulders have no place they can be set down
I wish someone coulda told me when i was older
By certain things id be bound

chorus

What am i gonna do?
I'm reachin out for you
What am I gonna do?
I'm callin out for you
