You can hide behind your nightsticks
Tin badges and twisted laws
You can stand on the road to compassion
And never see where it goes

But even you are a human being
Where did we go wrong with you ?
You are living, breathing, touching, seeing

Well we're talking about the day
When you took me away
Romain, Romain

I'm not ashamed, you frighten me
You made me think just like you
The eye that you have got from me
I want to take it back from you

But even you are a human being
Where did we go wrong with you ?
You are living, breathing, touching, seeing

Well I'm talking about the way
That your mind went astray
Romain, Romain

Well I'll tell you what you did to me man
And I'm not talking about the punches thrown
You got me thinking about what's happening here
Where we are and where we're all going

But even you are a human being
Where did we go wrong with you ?
You are living, breathing, touching, seeing

I was lying on the ground
And the crowd stood around
Romain, Romain
