Taking your shoes away
Walking on broken glass
Taking up high way straight
Hanging inside your carass
Where can we get by dawn
Washing in morning ice
Drinking the hero's wine
Seeing in stranger's eyes

*You're the one who we can hunt
Just like I began to start
When you're here he'll never put you down
Why I know that you're the land
Who will never clear our mind
Oh round and round with everyone in town

Letting too fast to seat
Running since with those feet
Talking too fast you hear
Feeling your body's squeak

La, la, la, la, la, la
Taking the easy way out
La, la, la, la, la, la

(*repeat)
