You think that your smart
You know about this but
What about that, questions?
I know this I know that
Well what about this
Tell yourself you understand
Deep inside you know
Movin' on to the next day
The next lane
The next way
The direction you point
You think you know
You think you know
You think you know
Movin' on to the next day
The next lane
The next way
The direction you point

You know about all that shit
I know about life, I'm alive
You know your smarter than me
Well I know different
Put me head to head
Who will prevail, let's
Take a chance, TAKE CARE
Take care of yourself
You'll be mine
Take care of yourself
It'll be fine
Take care of yourself
Take Care

We're face to face
You can't speak now
What's the chance
You'll take me down
Face the facts, imbecile
I am the man you wanna
BE

Movin' on to the next day

The next lane
The next way
The direction you point
You think you know
You think you know
You think you know
Movin' on to the next day
The next lane
The next way
