Verse 1:

When you look in my eyes, do you feel like I'm gonna hurt you?

I know you're afraid, and there's a lot to explain
But that's okay, cause I really heal you
And take all of your hurt, and lock it away

So why are you hiding?

I try to break down that wall that you've built
And it's all gonna be alright, yeah
If you have a lot of faith, and a little will

Chorus:

If you can let it all go, let it all go
You never have to swallow your pain
Baby, let it all go, let it all go
Your heart will never beat the same
So let it all go, let it all go
Cause I'm never gonna quit it until
You have a lot of faith, and a little will
I said you have a lot of faith, and a little will

Verse 2:

So look in my eyes, there's no need for you to feel nervous
It's just you and me here, and you're safe as you can be
And when you roll the dice, Oh I swear it's gonna be worth it
Don't you worry, there ain't no hurry, honey, in your own time

So why are you hiding?

Tell me why, I'm trying to break down that wall that you've built
And it's all gonna be alright, yeah
If you have a lot of faith, and a little will, oh

Chorus:

If you can let it all go, let it all go
You'll never have to swallow your pain

Baby, let it all go, let it all go
Your heart will never beat the same
So, let it all go, let it all go
Cause I'm never gonna quit it until
You have a lot of faith, and a little will
You have a lot of faith, and a little will

Bridge:

Well maybe time is gonna change things
But maybe not
I know right now your hesitating
And your heart is in the slingshot, stop
Second guessing yourself, put your stress on a shelf
Cause, soon you'll find, this is all in your mind

Chorus
