I've been running fast trying to find a place
With imperfect heart and darkness in it's way
I float on air, you dragged me down, down
With your conscience clear and weapons on the ground

You are the one I could die for
Cut all ties and then lie on
You raise my eyes from the shadows
If this ain't love, nothing matters

I've been fighting hard, trying to slave the fear
My unspoken words are trying to dry the tears
I froze mid-air, you shut me down, down
With your blackened guns and feet still on the ground
(ground...)

You are the one I could die for
Cut all ties and then lie on
You raise my eyes from the shadows
If this ain't love, nothing matters

If this ain't love, nothing matters
