[mark t & sonny]

Holdin' hands, strollin' through the park (ooooohhh)

Sweet memories (yeahhh)

Are torn apart (ooohh)

I made a promise I could not keep (I could not keep)

I played around, oh girl, I made you weep

[chorus- mark t & sonny]

I had a choice, and I chose wrong

I made a promise, girl, to leave it alone

You gave me trust, I threw it away

Baby, please

Sonny, son, son

Yeah

How roses, love notes, and apologies does it take?

How many more lonely nights do I stay awake?

Reminisce of the times you would do whatever

Sneak out your window so that we can be together

And when your daddy said he would kill your boyfriend

Not even he could separate us back then

I wish these thoughts would've been going through my mind

When I broke this promise and I made you cry

Forgive me, I wish it was a dream, that I might awake

To your lovin' arms around me

I guess I gave in to man's deepest weakness

I'm at your mercy begging for forgiveness

I had a choice and I chose wrong

Now I'm trying to make it better writing you this song

I love you more than anything up in this world

Never wanna lose you, forgive me, girl, uh

[chorus]

I sat back, took my time, wrote these rhymes

Words I never express, the type of things that I'm sayin'

Right out the top of the head, I ain't lyin'

Even cried when I wrote it, and every time I read it

Tear it up and throw it Think of back to the days when you didn't know what life was
'cause at the same time I gave it to ya, I took it from ya
And now I understand why you can't look me in my eyes there again
Sittin' underneath the candle light tryin' to 'rize the same lines
Feel it even more when the paper tore from writin' so hard
All hands down with my heart on the floor
'cause I knew I fucked up, comin' out a broken man
Please, lord, control my hand and have your angels bless these words >from a man coming from a broken world
And every time I stopped, your face I saw, your voice I heard
Visions of your tears hauntin' my dreams
Forgive me

[chorus]

[mark t & sonny]

'cause girl, you know that I wanna love you forever more
Forever and ever, never, n-n-never leave me, baby
I wanna have you right by my side
'cause you are my lady
Please don't leave me, baby, baby

[chorus to end]

I got to have you by my side
I made a promise, girl
I wanna do you right
Oh yeahhhh
Lady, lady
